“(E) The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to transfer to the Trust Fund from the Retirement Account or to the Retirement Account from the Trust Fund, as the case may be, such amounts as, from time to time, may be determined by the Board and the Federal Security Administrator pursuant to the provisions of subparagraphs (B) and (C) of this subsection, and certified by the Board or the Administrator for transfer from the Retirement Account or from the Trust Fund.”

(e) Where the parent of a deceased employee has, prior to the date of enactment of this Act, been awarded a survivor annuity under the Railroad Retirement Acts which is currently payable, the entitlement of such parent to a survivor's annuity in accordance with the amendments made by this Act shall be determined without regard to whether or not such employee died leaving a "widow" or "widower", as defined in this Act.

(f) All joint and survivor annuities heretofore and hereafter awarded shall be governed by the law under which the election of the joint and survivor annuity was made, except that the individual who made the election shall have the right to revoke the same in such manner and form as the Board may prescribe.

An election shall be deemed to have been revoked if before or after the enactment hereof the spouse for whom the election was made predeceased the individual who made the election. Upon revocation of the election, or death of the spouse, as herein provided, the individual's annuity shall be increased to the amount which would have been payable had no election been made; such increased annuity shall, subject to the provisions of section 2 (c) of the Railroad Retirement Act of 1937, as amended, begin to accrue on the first of the calendar month following the calendar month in which the election was revoked or the spouse died but not before the calendar month next following the month of enactment hereof.

(g) All pensions due in months following the first calendar month after the month of enactment hereof shall be increased by 15 per centum.

(h) The increase in retirement annuities provided by this Act shall apply also to annuities heretofore awarded under the Railroad Retirement Act of 1935, and the term "spouse" as used in this Act shall include the wife or husband of an employee who has been awarded an annuity under the Railroad Retirement Act of 1935. The provisions of this Act shall not apply to annuities heretofore paid under the Railroad Retirement Acts in lump sums equal to their commuted values.

(i) The annuity of the spouse of an employee who has been awarded an annuity under section 3 (b) of the Railroad Retirement Act of 1935 or under section 2 (a) 2 (b) of the Railroad Retirement Act of 1937 prior to its amendment by Public Law 572, Seventy-ninth Congress, shall, subject to the provisions of this Act, be one-half the annuity such employee would have received had the annuity been awarded at age sixty-five.

(j) All recertifications by the Railroad Retirement Board required by reason of the provisions of this Act other than section 9 shall be made without application therefor. Recertifications pursuant to section 9 of this Act shall be made only upon application therefor in such manner and form and filed within such time as the Railroad Retirement Board may prescribe.
